What to bring:

- Towel
- Soap
- Toothbrush
- Any medications you take
- Sunscreen
- Safety whistle
- Other personal items you need
- Clothes for cool evenings and hot days – items you don't mind getting dirty or worn
- Journal/notebook with a pen and/or pencil. Significant chunks of time are set aside for reflection, contemplation and journaling. You are encouraged to begin this process prior to your arrival.
- Light Rain gear (optional you might want to check the weather forecast)
- Sleeping Bag
- Durable shoes appropriate for hiking
- Water bottle – some find a camel back (backpack water pouch) very helpful
- Coffee mug
- Flashlight
- Hat (important for sun protection)
- Portable camping chair (optional but a good idea). Your chair should NOT have arms for cup holders, which take up too much space during group activities. *

- Small one man tent (optional) #
- 5x8 foot tarp with grommets #
- 20 feet of nylon or cotton rope #
- Backpack **
- Walking Stick (optional, but can be helpful) **
- Drums, rattles, etc. if you have any (for those traveling long distances, we will have some extras)

* Portable chairs are optional. If you are flying in don't worry about it. If you are driving or carpooling consider bringing a camp chair. This will help with the group activity you will be part of.

** These are items used on the FIRMinG but can be useful on the MROP if you have room to bring them

Items you will need if you are doing tent camping. If you are coming from the local area you might want to bring these items.
